

Using Your Library Card to Access Electronic Resources from Work or Home

- Visit the library's home page at www.npl.org.
- Select "Internet & Electronic Resources" on the left side of the page.

- Either browse the databases alphabetically by clicking on a letter or scroll down for "Search for a database by subject"

	Ancestry (Library Edition)	Research census (1790-1930), birth, marriage, death records, plus news stories, photos historical maps, and more. Also includes U.K. census records from 1841 to 1901. Use in the library only.
Programs & Exhibits	Academic Search Premier	An academic multi-disciplinary database that provides full text for nearly 4,650 serials, and full text for more than 3,600 peer-reviewed (scholarly) titles. To use from home or work click here how
	Career Transitions	Complete, self-paced application that walks job-seekers through the entire job-seeking process from assessing strengths and interests, to exploring new opportunities, to ultimately improving the chances of landing a job.
Programs & Exhibits	Academic Search Premier	An academic multi-disciplinary database that provides full text for nearly 4,650 serials, and full text for more than 3,600 peer-reviewed (scholarly) titles. To use from home or work click here (Show me how)

- Many of the databases are accessible from outside the library using your Newark Public Library card. If a database is NOT available outside the library, there will be a note in red.
- To access a database, you may click on the link at the end of the description OR
- Use the database name link when there is no additional link at the end of the description.
- If you need help navigating through the database, click Show me how to view a tutorial

Need more help?

Please contact the Reference Center at 973-733-7779.

