Library Announces June Programs

Highlighting the June schedule of programs for the Newark Public Library, 5 Washington Street, are the Prudential Foundation Summer Reading Challenge, two exhibitions, book signings, and special children's events. All are free and open to the public. For more information, patrons should call the number listed with the program description. Some additional details may be available at www.npl.org for adult programs and at KidsPlace.npl.org for children's programs, or by visiting the library's blog at <http://www.nj.com/newark/npl>.

A festive rally on Tuesday, June 23 will launch the Prudential Foundation Summer Reading Challenge. The event will begin at 10:30am in Centennial Hall of the main library. It features New Jersey magician/comedian/author Mark H. Wurst. His program, "The Library Magic and Creativity Show," teaches children how to unleash their own creativity and why being creative is important for their future success. The rally also includes an appearance by Corky, the library's mascot, refreshments and a prize.

The Prudential Foundation Summer Reading Challenge encourages children to put the enjoyment of reading in their summer fun activities. This year's theme for kids is Be Creative; the theme for teens is Express Yourself. The program runs from June 22 through August 1. It rewards Newark's children, who read and report on at least five books, with a step system of prizes. For more information, stop by any of the library's Children's Rooms system wide, or visit kidsplace.npl.org.

The Frances E.W. Harper Literary Society, which is dedicated to discussing books on the African Diaspora, will hold a lecture and book signing on Wednesday, June 10 at 6:30pm in Centennial Hall. Louis Reyes Rivera will discuss and sign copies of his newest book, The Bandana Republic. In addition to being an author, Rivera is a talk-show host and a professor of history. For more information about this program or the Society call 973-733-5411.

On Wednesday, June 24, Dr. Albert Lewis will present a documentary highlighting three hundred gospel legends. The film will be shown in the Auditorium at 6pm. Please RSVP by emailing rsvp@npl.org or by calling 973-733-7793.

ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) classes, presented by the Main Library's Special Services Room, continue at two locations through July 11. Classes will be held at the Van Buren Branch Library, 140 Van Buren Street, on Tuesdays and Fridays at 10am, on Wednesdays at 5pm, and on Saturdays at 10am. At the Main Library, in the third-floor Special Services Room, they will take place on Wednesdays at 5pm, and on Saturdays at 10am. For more information call 973-733-5412.

Kirsten Poe Hill and Renee E. Warren will hold a book signing and talk about two friends who formed a business wrote a book about their experiences: You Buy the Peanut Butter, I'll Get the Bread: The Absolute True Adventures of Best Friends in Business. The program will take place on Thursday, June 18, beginning 6:00 pm in Centennial Hall. Please RSVP by emailing rsvp@npl.org or by calling 973-733-7793.

Installed in the third-floor gallery is The History of Fine Printing: With a Special Salute to the Richard C. Jenkinson Collection of Notable Books and Broad­sides. Nearly 85 years ago, the library received a donation of 288 books showing off the work of fine presses and the art of printing. The collection was from Richard C. Jenkinson. A number of books are highlighted in this exhibition, which was curated by William J. Dane and Chad Leinaweaver, Special Collections Division. Monumental works of printing from within the library's collections will also be shown, in addition to some of the mechanics of printing and fine press books. It will be on view through July 1. The New Jersey Council for the Humanities provided valuable funding to mount this show and two related programs. For more information on The History of Printing call 973-733-7745.

The Revival of Professional Baseball in New Jersey is installed in the second-floor gallery through June 27. This historical and entertaining show features baseball in Newark, Jersey City and Paterson. It was curated by librarian James Lewis of the Charles F. Cummings New Jersey Information Center. Funding for this project comes from an Operating Support Grant from the New Jersey Historical Commission, a division of the Department of State. Fans of all ages will learn about Newark's first professional team, the Newark Peppers of the Federal League, while taking a nostalgic look at the glory years of Newark baseball. Contemporary Garden State-based teams of the Atlantic League, Can-Am League, Eastern League and South Atlantic League will be covered in dramatic photographs and memorabilia. Special thanks for the development of this exhibition go to Bob Golon, author of No Minor Accomplishment: The Revival of New Jersey Professional Baseball. For more information about this baseball retrospective call James Lewis at 973-733-7775.

Free computer classes—in English and Spanish—are being held in the Technology Training Center, which is located on the third floor of the main library. Class size is limited to ten participants. Some classes are designed for first-time computer users (Mouse Clinic, Typing), while others are for those with more computer literacy (Word Processing, Email, Blogging, Internet, Creating a Résumé). For more information on the calendar of classes for the month, please call 973-733-3603, or visit www.npl.org/Pages/Computers/.
