

Pero, Like, Let's Talk About Colorism in the Latino Community

The Newark Public Library • Saturday, November 10, 2018

1:00 PM, First Floor Reading Room

Legal Discussion re: Perez v. Sharp, the 1948 Supreme Court of CA landmark case, which predated Brown v. Board of Educ. and Loving v. VA involving inter-racial marriage. Discussion will be led by Mariel Mercado-Guevara, Esq. and Jennifer Bolden Pitre, Esq. with NJ State Bar Association - Minorities in Profession Section (MIPS)

2:00 PM, Centennial Hall

Professor Melissa Valle will lead an honest and lively conversation about the origins and impact of Latino Colorism. Animated short skits on the subject will be performed by Cocotazo Media theater company.

Parking available at Bears & Eagles Stadium located on Bridge Street between McCarter Highway and Atlantic Street from 12:30-5PM

For more information, please visit www.npl.org or call 973.733.7798

