

The Battle Over Women's Suffrage in Newark

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11, 2020

AT 6:00 PM | A Program Sponsored by the Newark History Society, Newark Public Library, and Federated Department of History and Department of African American and African Studies at Rutgers University–Newark.

PRESENTERS

NOELLE LORRAINE WILLIAMS
Rutgers–Newark

GEORGE ROBB
William Paterson University

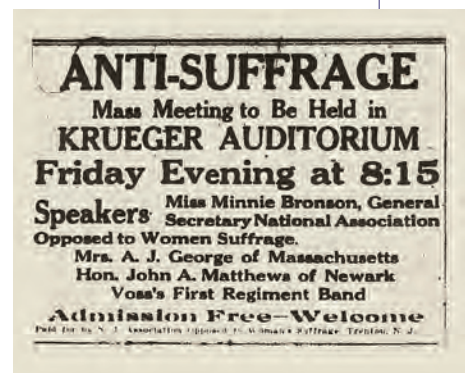

NEWARK PUBLIC LIBRARY

Centennial Hall (2nd floor),
5 Washington Street
Newark, New Jersey

RECEPTION | Open to the public at no charge | Free parking available at the Bears & Eagles Stadium Parking Garage | Essex County Lot; entrance on Bridge Street.

RSVPS REQUESTED

Please RSVP by March 9 to NewarkHistorySoc@gmail.com or by calling 917.254.5028

Clockwise from top: Campaign Year Book, Women's Political Union of NJ, ca. 1912; Florence Spearling Randolph, founder of NJ Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, 1919; Anti-Suffrage meeting notice, Newark Evening News, October 14, 1915; Blanche Harris, Newark suffragist, 1920.

NEWARK HISTORY SOCIETY

RUTGERS
UNIVERSITY | NEWARK