

Land the Job of Your Dreams

with ReferenceUSA & the Newark Public Library

Please join us August 20th, at 4pm at the Newark Public Library for a presentation on how ReferenceUSA can be utilized as a job searching tool. Pre-registration required.

After the presentation, Bill Carlson, a ReferenceUSA Representative, will be glad to answer your questions about researching all phases of your job search.

Selection criteria include:

- Geography
- Location type (Headquarters/Branch)
- Business type
- Sales volume
- Employee size
- Year established
- And more...

ReferenceUSA provides in-depth information on more than 14 million U.S. potential employers nationwide! Our Internet based database will guide you in conducting research about industries and companies, find over 200,000 Human Resource Executives, and prepare for interviews.

Topics include:

- Researching careers you enjoy.
- Putting together your information for a job search.
- Networking and finding job opportunities.
- Application and resume writing.
- Researching for your interviews.
- What to think about so you can put your best foot forward.
- Negotiating salary and benefits within an industry.
