The following exhibitions continue during November:

New Jersey Through Artists' Eyes: Garden State Iconography

Runs September 28 – December 31, 2009, Main Library, 5 Washington Street, Third Floor Gallery.

Curated by Chad Leinaweaver and William J. Dane, this exhibition displays the work of a variety of artists depicting New Jersey scenes using a variety of formats. For more information, please call the Special Collections Division at 973-733-7745.

A Journey from Ancient Times: Peruvians in New Jersey

Runs September 17 – December 31, 2009, Main Library, 5 Washington Street, Second Floor Gallery

Part of the library's Hispanic Heritage Celebration, this exhibition showcases the history, cultural traditions, and experiences of the Peruvian immigrant community, which is one of the fastest growing Latino groups in our state. Curated by Ingrid Betancourt.

Tahuantinsuyo: Music of the Andes

Saturday, November 7, 2:00 – 4:00 pm, Main Library, 5 Washington Street, Centennial Hall,
Second Floor

The Quechua name for the Inca Empire was Tahuantinsuyo, which means the four regions of the world. Using a spectacular slideshow as a backdrop, this pioneer folk music group takes the audience on a visual and musical tour of the world of the Inca. Their rhythms, melodies, and instruments are part of an ancient musical tradition and their haunting sounds transcend time and place. For more information, please call 973-733-7772. This program is part of the library Hispanic Heritage Celebration, which is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts and administered by the Essex County Division of Cultural and Historic Affairs.

Book Signing with Marita Golden

Saturday, November 14, 12:00 – 2:00 pm, Main Library, 5 Washington Street, Centennial Hall,
Second Floor

Marita Golden's books address some of the major concerns and questions of African Americans, particularly women. She will read from her latest book, "It's All Love: Black Writers on Soul Mates, Family and Friends."

Newark Public Library Board of Trustees Meeting

Wednesday, November 18, 5:00 – 7:00 pm, Main Library, 5 Washington Street, Auditorium, Fourth Floor

The library's Board of Trustees will conduct their bimonthly meeting.
