Who are the folks bringing the lives of New Jersey's freedom seekers to the light? Join us for a conversation and slide show of community workers and local historians working to illuminate the lives and activism of African Americans in NJ in the 1800s. Panelists: Kristal Langford, The Lost Souls Memorial Project; Linda Shockley, Lawnside Historical Society and Peter Mott House Underground Railroad Museum; Dr. Christopher Matthews, Montclair State University; and historian, Dr. James Amemasor.

Check out our resource page on the Black Power! 19th Century: Newark's First African American Rebellion for more information about these organizations and the exhibition: blackpower19thcentury.com/
