Virgenes Urbanas

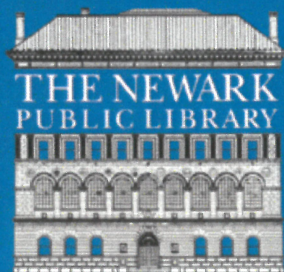

Saturday
June 3, 2017
2:30 – 5:00 p.m.

Spanish colonial art is famous for its Virgins. In the book Virgenes Urbanas / Urban Virgins, visual artist Ana de Orbegoso reimagines the traditional images of the Virgin Mary using photos of present-day women of Peru. Each photo is paired with a poem by Peruvian poet Odi Gonzáles, written in Spanish, Quechua and English. The library is pleased to present this event in partnership with PERU - Raíces Peruanas Unidas.

Join us for a conversation with Ms. de Orbegoso and a traditional Peruvian dance presentation. The book will be available for sale.
