

Teen Art Workshop

Express Who You Are with Fabric, Art and Words

For centuries, cultures across the world use symbols on fabric to convey information about their history and emotions. There is a rich human history told through quilts, African, Mexican and European symbols and even bandanas.

Come join visual and craft Newark artist Noelle Lorraine Williams to use words and symbols and whatever you want to design your own bandana, scarf, peace flag or wall square.

All materials provided.

Thursday, February 1, 2018

3:30 – 5:15pm

Weequahic Branch

355 Osborne Terrace

Newark, NJ 07112

(973) 733-7751

www.npl.org

Funding provided by

VICTORIA FOUNDATION

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.