ZOOM.US/JOIN | MEETING ID: 954-0150-6286 | PASSWORD: 26096348

Please join the Newark Public Library's Thomas Ankner for a talk with economist Brendan O'Flaherty via Zoom.

O'Flaherty, a former Newark city employee who now teaches at Columbia University, explores the changing fortunes of Newark as the formal Census population figures have shifted from decade to decade. How important is the Census to the financial health of a city? Why should you fill out your 2020 Census form? O'Flaherty will explain.
