

The Battle Over Women's Suffrage in Newark

TUESDAY,
SEPTEMBER 22, 2020
AT 6:00 PM

A Program Sponsored by the Newark History Society, Newark Public Library, and Federated Department of History and Department of African American and African Studies at Rutgers University–Newark.

PRESENTERS

NOELLE LORRAINE WILLIAMS
*Rutgers–Newark and
The Newark Public Library*

GEORGE ROBB
William Paterson University

PLEASE REGISTER IN ADVANCE FOR THIS ZOOM SEMINAR
[zoom.us/webinar/register/
WN\_2wPZW03FTQKMk1sNoQ-4TA](https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_2wPZW03FTQKMk1sNoQ-4TA)

Clockwise from top: Campaign Year Book, Women's Political Union of NJ, ca. 1912; 1919; Anti-Suffrage meeting notice, Newark Evening News, October 14, 1915; Florence Spearing Randolph, founder of NJ Federation of Colored Women's Clubs; Blanche Harris, Newark suffragist, 1920.

