

QUEER NEWARK: AN ARCHIVE OF PRIDE

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10 | 7 PM

Tune in on Zoom - Registration Required

The Newark Public Library celebrates Pride Month with an online talk about the Queer Newark Oral History Project. This community-based archive preserves the memories of people whose lives connect to the history and experiences of LGBTQ Newark.

Queer Newark's Kristyn Barr-Scorsone talks with the Newark Public Library's Thomas Ankner. They are joined by contributors to the archive, who discuss what the project means to them.

To register, visit tinyurl.com/ybzkwph5

Co-sponsored by the Newark LGBTQ Community Center

