

Gone Too Soon:

The Life, Legacy and Loss of Newark's Cultural Icons

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2021

RECEPTION • 1:00 PM | PROGRAM • 2-4:30 PM

Newark Public Library - JBAAR • 5 Washington Street, Newark, NJ 07102

Join us for the Newark premiere of the documentary Gone Too Soon: The Life, Legacy and Loss of Newark's Cultural Icons (90 minutes/color/PG). Film screening followed by a conversation and Q&A with director/producer Celeste A. Bateman and film crew.

Funding for Gone Too Soon has been provided by the M&T Weiner Foundation, Newark Arts (ArtStart Grant), the City of Newark Creative Catalyst Fund in Partnership with Newark Arts, the New Jersey Performing Arts Center, and generous donations from individuals.

Gone Too Soon: The Life, Legacy and Loss of Newark's Cultural Icons is a documentary that examines the lives and documents the artistic, cultural and educational contributions of several of Newark's cultural icons, among them: Cephas Bowles, Amiri Baraka, Breya "Blkbrry Mollassez" Knight, Halim Suliman, Rodney Gilbert, Dr. Clement Alexander Price, Charles Cummings, Dr. Robert Curvin, Russell Murray, Jerry Gant and Kabu Okai-Davies.

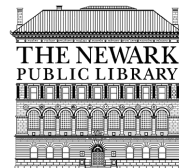

Limited capacity event. Please RSVP by October 4th if you are planning to attend:

<https://bit.ly/3hh0K2h>

CITY OF NEWARK
Mayor Ras J. Baraka

NEW ARK
ARTS
START

This event is presented by the Newark Public Library in partnership with Celeste Bateman & Associates, LLC.