

Overdose Memorial Exhibit

The Newark Public Library

5 Washington St, Newark, NJ 07102

August 29-September 9

The Newark Public Library is hosting the national Overdose Memorial traveling exhibit August 29-September 9. Visitors are invited to learn more about the crisis of overdose deaths through a video wall and interactive online memorial.

Nearly a million people have died since 2000, each one a person who mattered to someone. Explore the stories of people who have been lost to this crisis and learn more about how you can support harm reduction services in your community.

Join us in remembering those lost to overdose and learn more about ways to end the overdoses crisis.
