

A SCREENING & COMMUNITY DISCUSSION OF

WILLIAM GREAVES'

NATIONTIME

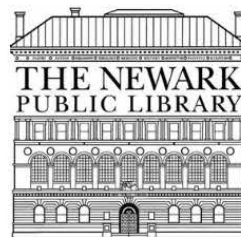

The film captures the epic National Black Political Convention of 1972 in Gary Indiana. Its key conceptualizer was none other than Newark's own Amiri Baraka. We are hosting this screening and discussion in anticipation of the 50th Anniversary Convention co-convened by Mayor Baraka and Jackson, Mississippi Mayor Chokwe Antar Lumumba to be held here in Newark at Essex County College from October 21 - 23 (NBPC2022.com). After the film, we will be hosting an intergenerational discussion in response to the film and the upcoming convention.
