

BODY ART WORKSHOP

FOR TEENS

Our bodies are a canvas for ideas about ourselves and the world. This workshop led by Newark artist Noelle Lorraine Williams references artists who have worked with casts like Ben Jones (pictured) Frida Kahlo and George Segal. Participants will mold their faces or arms and later paint designs on them.

September 26

5:30 - 7:30 PM

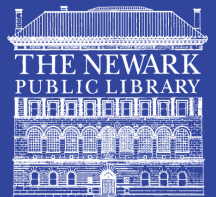

Branch Brook Library

235 Clifton Avenue

Newark, NJ 07104

This program is funded in part by a generous grant from the Victoria Foundation.

For more information call (973) 733-7760.