GUEST LECTURER:
Kenneth B. Morris, Jr.
Co-Founder & President
Frederick Douglass Family Initiatives

Kenneth B. Morris, Jr. descends from two of the most influential names in American history: he is the great-great-great-grandson of Frederick Douglass and the great-great-grandson of Booker T. Washington. Join us for a personal reflection of how the iconic image of Frederick Douglass shaped his legacy and the Civil Rights movement of nineteenth century America.

The program is being made available by the generous support of The Philip Roth Endowment, the Friends of the James Brown African American Room, the Newark Museum of Art and Rutgers University-Newark, Department of History and Africana Studies.
